For the relief of J. B. Riddle.

July 8, 1974
[H. R. 1376]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to J. B. Riddle of Fort Worth, Texas, the sum of $5,500 in full settlement of all his claims against the United States arising out of the displacement and relocation of his business in 1967 in connection with a federally assisted construction project. The said J. B. Riddle is ineligible for relocation payments under the Advance Acquisition of Land Program of the Department of Housing and Urban Development as a result of his reliance on certain misinformation he received from the city of Fort Worth, Texas.

J. B. Riddle.

SEC. 2. No part of the amount appropriated in the first section of this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

AN ACT

For the relief of James A. Wentz.

James A. Wentz.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That James A. Wentz, of Wausau, Wisconsin, is relieved of liability to the United States in the amount of $504 for overpayments of pay and allowances as a member of the United States Marine Corps from November 1967 through March 1969, due to administrative errors on the part of Marine Corps personnel, and received by him in good faith without fault on his part. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for amounts for which liability is relieved by this section.

SEC. 2. (a) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to James A. Wentz an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts paid by him, or withheld from sums otherwise due him, with respect to the indebtedness to the United States specified in the first section of this Act.

(b) No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
